ANTHONY J. BEAUMONT

CRITICAL INCIDENT COMMANDER

Denver, CO (555) 569-8347 anthony.beaumont@email.com linkedin.com/in/anthonyjbeaumont

Summary

POST-certified Critical Incident Commander with 20 years of law enforcement command experience at the Denver Police Department. Served as Incident Commander for 45+ high-risk incidents including active-shooter events, barricaded-subject standoffs, and mass-casualty disasters. Led the 2021 Boulder King Soopers mass-casualty incident command structure as regional mutual aid coordinator. FEMA ICS-400 certified; Hostage Negotiation Team supervisor with 98% peaceful resolution rate across 62 negotiations. Named Colorado Peace Officers Standards & Training (POST) Command Leadership Award recipient (2022).

Skills

Other Skills: Critical Incident Command (ICS) (98), Hostage Negotiation Supervision (95), SWAT Operations Command (95), Mass-Casualty Incident Management (93), Use-of-Force Policy & Expert Testimony (90), Multi-Agency Coordination (95), CISM Program Development (88), Tactical Training Curriculum Design (90)

Experience

Denver Police Department

Denver, CO

Critical Incident Commander / SWAT Commander

Jun 2016 - Present

Serve as Incident Commander for all DPD critical incidents including active shooters, barricaded subjects, hostage negotiations, and mass-casualty events.

- Commanded 45+ high-risk critical incidents over career with zero officer fatalities and 98% peaceful resolution of negotiated incidents
- Served as regional mutual aid Incident Commander during 2021 Boulder King Soopers mass-casualty event, coordinating 14 agencies
- Supervised 18-member Hostage Negotiation Team with 98% peaceful resolution rate across 62 negotiated incidents since 2016
- Developed Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) protocol adopted DPD-wide, reducing post-incident PTSD claims 26%
- Conducted monthly command-level ICS tabletop exercises for 35 DPD commanders and 12 partner-agency representatives
- Testified as use-of-force policy expert in 3 federal civil rights proceedings, providing comprehensive incident documentation

Denver Police Department

Denver, CO

Lieutenant – SWAT / Special Operations

Sep 2010 - May 2016

Led Special Weapons and Tactics unit for a 28-officer team conducting high-risk warrant service and crisis response.

- Led 28-officer SWAT unit conducting 90+ high-risk warrant services and emergency deployments annually
- Developed new dynamic entry and vehicle assault training curriculum, reducing officer injury rate on tactical entries 35%
- Coordinated multi-agency Task Force operations with DEA, FBI, and ATF on 12 federal investigations

Education

Regis University

Denver, CO

Master of Science

Sep 2012 - May 2015

Criminal Justice Leadership

Metropolitan State University of Denver

Denver, CO

Bachelor of Science

Sep 1998 - May 2002

Criminal Justice