Heather Lindqvist

Educational Audiologist

Educational audiologist with 4 years in a 48,000-student school district, supporting about 260 students who are deaf or hard of hearing. Manages remote microphone systems, the district hearing screening program and classroom acoustics checks, and reports findings to IEP and 504 teams. CCC-A and Texas licensed.

heather.lindqvist@email.com (512) 555-0191 Austin, TX linkedin.com/in/heatherlindqvist

EXPERIENCE

Educational Audiologist

08/2022 - Present

Balcones Independent School District — Austin, TX

Suburban school district with 48,000 students on 62 campuses.

- Support 260 deaf and hard of hearing students across 62 campuses with annual audiological evaluations.
- Manage 140 remote microphone systems, from fitting and verification to teacher training and repairs.
- Present audiology findings at 120+ IEP and 504 meetings a year, recommending classroom accommodations for each student.
- Run hearing screening for 15,000 students a year and train 40 school nurses on screening and referral steps.

Audiologist

06/2021 - 07/2022

Capital Area Hearing Clinic — Round Rock, TX

Outpatient audiology clinic serving adults and children in Williamson County.

- Evaluated 10-12 adult and pediatric patients a day with comprehensive diagnostic testing.
- Fitted 15 hearing aids a month and verified each with real-ear measurement.
- Counseled families of newly diagnosed children on hearing loss and school services, referring 30 children to district programs.

CERTIFICATES

Certificate of Clinical Competence in Audiology (CCC-A)

07/2022

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association

Audiologist License

06/2021

Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation

SKILLS

Remote Microphone Systems

Hearing Screening

Classroom Acoustics

Classroom Accommodations

IEP

Diagnostic Testing

Hearing Aids

Real-Ear Measurement

EDUCATION

Doctor of Audiology (Au.D.)

05/2021

The University of Texas at Dallas

Richardson, TX

Audiology