Aaliyah Brooks

JUVENILE DETENTION OFFICER

Indianapolis, IN (317) 555-0181 aaliyah.brooks@email.com linkedin.com/in/aaliyahbrooks

SUMMARY

Juvenile detention officer with 2 years supervising youth ages 12-18 in a 140-bed secure detention center. Uses crisis intervention, behavior management and clear incident reports to keep units safe, with sound judgment in tense moments. Compassionate with residents, firm on rules and trained in PREA standards and nonviolent crisis intervention.

SKILLS

Crisis Intervention • Behavior Management • Incident Reports • Room Checks • PREA Standards
Group Facilitation • Youth Mentoring • CPR/First Aid • Sound Judgment • Compassionate

EXPERIENCE

Juvenile Detention Officer 06/2024 - Present
Circle City Juvenile Detention Center Indianapolis, IN 140-bed secure detention center for youth awaiting court.

- Oversee a living unit of up to 16 youth, running daily schedules, counts and room checks every 15 minutes.
- Resolve conflicts with crisis intervention skills; physical restraints on the unit fell 35% in 2025.
- Record behavior points, incidents and medical concerns in the detention database before each shift change.
- Facilitate evening groups on anger management and homework for 10-12 residents.

Youth Care Worker 08/2022 - 05/2024
Eagle Creek Youth Homes Indianapolis, IN
Residential group homes for 24 youth in foster care.

- Mentored 8 teens on hygiene, homework and daily living skills in a group home setting.
- Drove youth to school, therapy and court appointments, about 15 trips a week.
- Wrote shift notes and incident reports reviewed by the clinical team each morning.
- Planned weekend outings and chore schedules that cut house rule violations by a third.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science 05/2022
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis Indianapolis, IN Criminal Justice

CERTIFICATES

Nonviolent Crisis Intervention
Crisis Prevention Institute (CPI)
07/2024

PREA Training for Juvenile Facility Staff
National PREA Resource Center
06/2024

CPR/First Aid
American Red Cross
01/2026