Samuel Okoye

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGIST

Cleveland, OH (216) 555-0177 samuel.okoye@email.com linkedin.com/in/samuelokoye

Summary

Medical Technologist with 4 years as a hospital generalist across hematology, chemistry, urinalysis, microbiology, coagulation and blood bank. Runs quality control and quality assurance checks, performs crossmatches and antibody workups, and handles venipuncture for difficult draws. Works independently on evening shift with sound independent judgment on critical values.

Skills

- Hematology
- Chemistry
- Urinalysis
- Microbiology
- Coagulation
- Blood Bank
- Quality Control
- Quality Assurance
- Venipuncture
- Independent Judgment

Experience

Medical Technologist 04/2024 - Present

Cuyahoga Valley Hospital Cleveland, OH

Generalist role in a 340-bed hospital lab with a level II trauma center.

- Run 1,100+ tests a shift across hematology, chemistry, coagulation and blood bank benches.
- Perform type and screen, antibody identification and crossmatches for 40 patients a day, including massive transfusions.
- Review quality control and monthly QA data for 9 analyzers and close every out-of-range event with documented action.
- Report critical values to nurses and physicians within 15 minutes, meeting the target on 99% of calls.

Medical Technologist 06/2022 - 03/2024

Lake Erie Community Hospital Lorain, OH

Generalist role in a 160-bed community hospital lab.

- Read Gram stains and set up 80 urine, wound and blood cultures a day in microbiology.
- Performed urinalysis with microscopic exams on 150 samples a shift.
- Drew blood by venipuncture for outpatients and ER patients when phlebotomy was short-staffed.
- Validated a new coagulation analyzer with correlation and precision studies before go-live.

Education

Bachelor of Science 05/2022

Cleveland State University Cleveland, OH

Medical Laboratory Science

Certificates

Medical Technologist, MT(AMT) 06/2022

American Medical Technologists