SUMMARY

Reading tutor with 5 years of reading instruction for students in grades K-5, including many with dyslexia. Trained in Orton-Gillingham and uses phonics instruction, fluency checks and running records to build decoding and reading comprehension. Brings patience and adaptability to every lesson, and the communication skills to keep parents and teachers informed.

EXPERIENCE

Reading Tutor 07/2023 - Present

Northern Lights Literacy Center — Minneapolis, MN

Private reading clinic offering one-on-one sessions in person and online.

- Teach 50-minute Orton-Gillingham lessons to 14 students a week, ages 5 to 11, in person and online.
- Assess new students with DIBELS 8 and running records to set a starting level and 8-week goals.
- Reached grade-level reading with 10 of 13 second and third graders during the 2024-25 school year.
- Write parents a note after each lesson with home practice words and one of the clinic's decodable readers.

Classroom Paraprofessional 08/2021 - 06/2023

Cedar Grove Elementary School — Richfield, MN

Public elementary school; reading support for grades 1-3.

- Ran guided reading groups of 4-6 first graders, 5 groups a day, from the teacher's lesson plans.
- Timed weekly fluency checks for 28 students and entered the scores in the district data system.
- Built a library of 40 phonics instruction games that 3 teachers used in literacy centers.
- Read one-on-one with 6 students below benchmark each morning, using decodable readers matched to their skills.

Student Teacher, Grade 2 01/2021 - 05/2021

Pinecrest Elementary School — Minneapolis, MN

Final-semester student teaching placement in a 26-student second-grade classroom.

- Taught 16 whole-class phonics and spelling lessons under the supervision of the classroom teacher.
- Conducted running records with 26 students in March and grouped them into 4 reading levels.
- Designed a reading comprehension unit on folktales that the grade-level team reused the next year.
